If you or anyone in your family is a person with a disability and you require a specific accommodation or if you need services or information in a language other than English, in order to fully utilize our programs and services, please contact SRC at 203-934-9266 (Tina Goodwin).

TTD/TTY 1-800-545-1833 x. 901, large print and audio available upon request.

As an applicant currently on the WHHA/SRC Public Housing waiting list, you cannot be denied assistance because you are or have been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, provided you are otherwise eligible for assistance. If you wish to claim protection under Violence against Women Act of 2013 (VAWA), complete and return the enclosed form HUD 5382 to our offices within (10) business days. If you need services or information in a language other than English, in order to read or understand this or any other communications from the SRC, or to fully utilize our programs and services, please notify 203-934-9266 x 100. If you or anyone in your family is a person with a disability and you require a specific accommodation or if you need services or information in a language other than English, in order to fully utilize our programs and services, please contact SRC at 203-934-9266. Unless required by Housing and Urban Development (HUD), no applicant will be denied housing assistance based on their criminal record without an opportunity to explain their circumstances during an informal review with the Director of Leased Housing or Director of Asset Management or their designated representative.

Applicants will be placed on the waiting list first according to PHA preference(s) and in the event of multiple families have the same preference points, then the date and time their complete application is received by the PHA.
